FIRST CALL

The Mexican Association of Food Science (AMECA) invites researchers, professionals, students, and entrepreneurs to participate in the Congress:

LATIN FOOD 2024

11th Food Science, Biotechnology & Safety Congress

This event will take place from 13 to 15 November 2024, at Marriott Tuxtla Gutierrez Hotel, located in the cultural and traditional city of Tuxtla Gutierrez, Chiapas Mexico.

The Congress will include 5 invited lectures given by leading national and international researchers, as well as oral and poster sessions in which the authors will present their research works within the following areas:

- Area I. Postharvest Technologies and Minimally Processed Foods
- Area II. Traditional and Endemic Foods
- Area III. Sustainable Food Process and Novel Technologies
- Area IV. Functional and Nutraceutical Foods
- Area V. Health, Nutrition, and Nutrigenomics

There will also be spaces for meeting talented and creative minds that come together to collaborate, share, learn, and network, including social and cultural activities (welcome cocktail, general assembly of the AMECA, and artistic performance of Mexican culture).

VOLUNTEERED ORAL AND POSTER PRESENTATIONS

All abstracts presented at the Congress will be peer-reviewed by a scientific committee. Submission of abstracts will be open from March 22 to June 30, 2024, through this link: Submission abstracts. To download the abstract template click on the following link: Abstract template. For any questions, please send an e-mail to abstracts.latinfood@gmail.com.
